

The Open Calls of the SmartAnythingEverywhere Initiative:
A highly attractive funding possibility for European industry, especially Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (SME)

Who can apply for the Open Calls of the SmartAnythingEverywhere Initiative?

Start-ups, small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) as well as midcaps can apply for the Open Calls if they fit into the given scheme.

Definitions:

- ➔ Commission recommendation of 6 May 2003 concerning the definition of micro-, small and medium-sized enterprises click here
- ➔ user guide to the SME definition click here

From which countries are companies allowed to apply?

- ➔ Legal entities established in the following countries and territories will be eligible to receive funding through Horizon 2020 grants.
Click here for a list of countries eligible for funding in respect of the Horizon2020 Work Programme.
- ➔ Furthermore, legal Entities from Associated countries can participate under the same conditions as the member states.

What companies are able to participate in the Open Calls?

- ➔ Tech (innovative companies) as well as non-tech companies (traditional companies)
- ➔ from various application domains are welcome to apply to the Open Calls e.g. Smart cities, smart transportation, smart health & well-being, smart agriculture, smart industry, smart energy, etc.

Further information:

- ➔ <https://smartanythingeverywhere.eu/>
- ➔ <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/digital-innovation-hubs-projects-open-calls-smes>
- ➔ <http://ec.europa.eu/research/participants/portal/desktop/en/opportunities/other/competitive.html>